

Top View

All Dimensions in Inches

Front View

Mounting is achieved by using the 2 mounting holes shown in the top view. These holes also provide direct focal length positioning for the optical assembly as the board locator holes line up with holes on the optical piece. The "interconnect" consists of 4 holes, 100 mils on center. Front of optical piece is flush with the edge of the board. Focal distance of approximately 200 mils is measured from that point.